

so lately there has been drama about me, i usually try to solve problems directly, but this has been made super public so im gonna respond publicly.

Before I begin I will say that if you dont support me after this, you are allowed not to support me, I just want to clear up the misinformation.

basically, there's been a thread that was up for a while exposing me for stuff i've done in the past few years. now, the person who made the thread went locked their twitter, but i responded to it with a few screenshots in a sta.sh link a while ago. <https://sta.sh/01tjbgf04ddi> recently a lot of drama has resurfaced, because I went into a server a few days ago of the people who hate me as a joke, posted a dumb sex joke to see how fast I would get banned. and in hindsight, it was a tasteless joke and overall a bad idea, and i'm definitely not going to do something like that anymore. it wasn't my intention to traumatize the people who were in there, and i am sorry to those who were genuinely hurt by me going in there, but all i can really do is admit to my fault here and stay out of your lives from now on.

a bit outside of the thread has some misinformation that's been spreading, is that people are saying i 'support pedophiles / maps' and that i'm a zoophile, and one person even stated that i fucked my dog.

I am extremely ashamed of my mindset back then, but I was groomed to believe that bestiality was okay in my old nsfw servers. there were zoophiles up the ASS on that server and it made me think it was okay. I deleted the server and I cut them out of my life after I realized how wrong it was. But if you've heard me recently talking about getting therapy, this is one of the things I was trying to get therapy for. I never sexually abused animals, I never 'fucked my dog' and I don't even have a dog, the last dog I had passed away in 2016, and the zoophilia grooming happened in mid 2017 - early 18.

this leads into the second thing. I don't hate all pedophiles. I don't support the 'map' community especially since some of them are trying to be accepted into the LGBT community, it's a paraphilia that I believe can be classified as a mental illness. But I do think pedos who are trying to get help, who are trying to have a normal life and have not groomed any children can be good people.

oh god FBFNCJF

basically. I support pedos if theyre getting the help they need. i dont support the MAP movement since a lot want to get normalized and accepted into LGBT which is fucked

i believe pedos who havent abused children deserve help and support, not isolation from society

And promise to never abuse a child. Some do want to live normally in society, since paraphilias sometimes cannot be cured, but they can be coped with in life

Understanding that their attraction isn't normal

Also, this is a gray area, but i don't really care if people like lolicon/shotacon in fiction. personally i don't care for it, but i could care less if someone else likes it. (unless of course they abuse/groom someone) Some people use / draw problematic fiction to cope, and don't get urges to do fucked up things irl. yes, fiction can affect reality but it doesn't always and here's a good thread that puts it into words here is another document which includes reliable resources to back it up

also(i forgot to mention this initially but), i made a cat version of the 'white identitarian' from Jreg's centricide series (if you don't know, that character is a nazi.) I understand that kind of thing is offensive, but please understand that I don't genuinely support nazism(that shit was fucked up i think everyone can agree) i just liked the character jreg portrays in his series. i'm not going to make nazi related characters like that in the future, and i did change the cat identitarian's design to be a different authright ideology after someone pointed out how it was messed up, but yeah.

ALSO also: if you saw anything about me being "transphobic" there was a Month (feb 2019) where i used to watch kalvin garrah and i was a 'transmed' because i was questioning if the gender incongruence i had was just transtrender feelings. i really do regret this time period since i made nbphobic art, i am and always have been nonbinary, i literally made a genderfluid fursona in 2009 (cutie puppy). i am sorry for that, it was due to me being confused with my identity. I fully came out as nb in july 2019.

if you hate or dislike me over this, you're allowed to. but please understand the full story before jumping to conclusions.
